The Forum 2024

Prologue

An artist can show things that other people are terrified of expressing

Louise Bourgeois

Dedication

This edition of the Forum is dedicated to the Class of 2024!

The class of 2024 suffered through the Covid pandemic in 2020.

They were quarantined!

They survived virtual learning.

They struggled wearing masks upon returning to the classroom.

But like true Cougars, they persevered!

Congratulations, Class of 2024!

Prologue

In a world of wonder and light,
Where day gives way to the velvet night,
Whispers of wind through trees so tall,
Nature's symphony, enchanting all.

Stars above, a twinkling dance,
Guiding dreams with their cosmic trance,
In this fleeting moment we find,
Beauty in the heart, peace in the mind.

So cherish each moment, precious and dear,
For life is a gift, embrace without fear,
In the tapestry of time, we play our part,
Connected by love, in the dance of the heart.

Prologue

In the heart of learning's sacred domain,
Where knowledge blooms like flowers in rain,
Our school stands tall, a beacon bright,
Guiding minds to seek the highest height.

Within these walls, young hearts are stirred,
By wisdom's call, their voices heard,
A place where curiosity takes flight,
And futures are shaped with wisdom's light.

So let us walk this path together,
Through stormy weather and sunny weather,
In this school of dreams and endless grace,
We embrace each challenge we face.

Christmas Night

One snowy night, snowflakes dropped from the night sky. All the snowflakes touching the top of the christmas tree. All the beautiful ornaments hang on each branch, while kids are jumping in snow and building a snowman. Nicole sees something red hanging from the mistletoe. She comes closer and closer and notices that they are candy canes. Those are her favorite! Nicole hears something coming down the chimney. As loud bangs come down, she sees santa! "Ho, Ho Ho! Merry Christmas!" The Christmas lights flicker on and the oven beeps. The gingerbread is ready to be eaten!
